Dachshund: Dog of the Month

This breed offers six varieties. There is a range of three coat types (smooth, wirehaired, and longhaired) found in miniature and standard sizes. The coat colors include red, black-and-tan, white-and-tan, dappled (a swirling mixture of brown, gray, white, and black), and a number of other colors. The eyes should be very dark except in the case of dappled dogs where blue (wall) eyes are as acceptable as dark eyes.

Miniatures are not a separate classification, but compete in a class division for "11 pounds and under at 12 months of age and older." Weight of the standard size is usually between 16 and 32 pounds. This is a long-lived breed (15 yrs.) but susceptible to spinal disc problems, diabetes, urinary stones, eye disorders, skin conditions, and heart disease.

Background

The name Dachshund (dachs, badger; hund, dog) implies that it was once used for badger hunting in Germany. Illustrations from the 15th, 16th, and 17th centuries show badgers hunted by dogs with elongated bodies, short legs and hound type ears—some with the bent front legs of the basset, some with the heads of terriers, and some with smooth and some with long coats. The Dachshund was known in Germany in the 1700s. In 1833 Queen Victoria referred to her Dach in a diary entry. The British first showed the breed in the 1870s. Eleven Dachshunds were included in the AKC Stud Book, Vol. II in 1885.

Temperament

The Dachshund is curious and playful, bold and brash, similar to a terrier in his demands to be in on everything. He thrives on companionship and is great in the city but does like his walks. He's adaptable and makes an excellent traveling companion. Although reserved with strangers, he's generally fine with other animals. He perseveres in above and below ground work with all the senses well developed. Any display of shyness is a serious fault.

November Meeting

FOOD: Our November meeting will be held on Monday, Nov. 16th. Do plan to attend and bring a dish for our potluck dinner. The club will provide beverages. Dinner will be served at 7:00 p.m. and everyone is welcome. If you know of anyone who might be interested in joining our group, do bring them along. All dogs are welcome after the meal.

PROGRAM: The program scheduled for the November meeting will be concerned with nutritional support for canine cancer. It will be presented by Adele Monroe, D.V.M. Adele is a member and practices Holistic Veterinary Medicine.

Minutes of the DKC Membership Meeting

Oct. 19, 1998 - Following a program given by DKC member Mary Oppermann on Earthdog Trials, the meeting called to order by Vice President, Diane Kessler, in the absence of President, Sharon Pitz. The minutes from the September 21st meeting were approved as printed in the club newsletter.

Marge White advised the membership of Stella's accident and mentioned a card being sent around for all to sign.

Betty Perschel thanked the members for their efforts in helping to make the very recent fall show such a success. The new show site served us well and most of the comments Betty received were of a favorable nature.

In Stella's absence, Marge White read the name of Phyllis Campbell who is applying for member-candidacy.

Cecillia Reeder reminded the membership about the need for trophies for the December obedience trial. A box has been placed in the storeroom to receive trophies already committed to.

Jack Sappenfield reminded members about the tracking trial that will be held on Nov. 22nd. Track layers are still needed as are food items for the luncheon following the test. Jack mentioned that several interested AKC employees will be joining the gallery as spectators and Jack Bernard, from AKC, will be among them.

Lisa Connelly, AKC Delegate, informed the members that the delegate's meeting in June of 1999 will be held in Raleigh.

George Beglane advised that a CGC test will be held on November 14th, following the present session of obedience classes. Volunteers are needed to help.

Joanna Burley told the members that applications for year-end awards are available now. They can be picked up in the club building entry area and will also be included in the next newsletter [this newsletter]. The deadline for applying for awards will follow our December obedience trial.

Terri Toohil informed the members that no conformation show wins were in the last newsletter because someone had apparently removed the signup sheet for conformation wins and did not put it back. The members were asked to put the sign up sheet back on the bulletin board if they should take it down. Terri also asked the members to be sure and print names clearly or send the information to her "online."

On October 31st we will host a mortgage burning party for all club members. Reservations will have to be made in advance and a sign up sheet was passed.

Members were reminded about the annual yard sale to be held on January 21st.

Diane Kessler read a letter from AKC requesting names of DKC members who are deserving of national recognition in the areas of conformation, obedience and performance. Club members received ballots and were invited to vote in the categories where they were knowledgeable.

Following several impressive brags, the meeting was adjourned at 9:00 p.m.

Stella Update

For the next few months our newsletter will include a new feature that we will call our "Stella Update." We hope it will be short lived and each month more positive than the one before.

For those of you who are not aware DKC member, Stella Maunsell, took a very serious fall while riding her horse, which was followed a week later by surgery. At this writing, Stella is home and doing well and we all are extremely grateful that this accident, although very serious, did not have even more critical results. Stella is wearing a contraption (surely there's a medical word for it), that generally is called a "halo." If that thing really is a halo, one has to wonder how many of us would want to rush to be in line when they are handed out—in the years to come!

Stella's spirits are very upbeat (of course they are, she is after all, our Stella!) and she is able to be up and about. Her wearing apparel does not challenge Yves Saint Laurent, but is definitely creative! It is difficult to get things over your head while wearing a halo—perhaps another good reason to not rush to be in that line.

For those of us who are "horse people" and have to ask, the horse is fine. As horses occasionally do, she stumbled, went down on her knees and Stella went over her head.

Until next month—

AKC Delegate's Report

September 1998 Meeting - Although I was unable to attend the September Delegates Meeting due to the exorbitant cost, I do want to report on the business that was conducted there. An amendment to Article XXI, Section 4 of the Charter, Constitution and Bylaws was approved, so that it is now optional to read either the entire amendment to be voted on or a summary of it. The full amendment will continue to be distributed twice to the Delegates and published twice in the AKC Gazette. This will greatly simplify the quarterly meetings and was a much needed change in procedure.

There were three amendments passed to Chapter 14 of the Field Trial Rules and Standard Procedure for Retrievers. An amendment to Section 2 ensures that the field trial committee is involved in all procedural decisions. Section 4(a) was revised to emphasize that the final authority to change the running order in any stake rests with the field trial committee, and Sections 10, 11, 15, 16, and 17 were revised to create a new Restricted All-Age Stake. Finally, an amendment was passed to Chapter 4, Section 4, and Chapter 9, Section 2, of the Field Trial Rules and Standard Procedure for Dachshunds, resulting in Field Champion Dog and Bitch classes in Dachshund field trials becoming regular classes.

In other business, elections were held to fill openings on the Delegate standing committees and on the Perspectives editorial staff. If anyone would like a list of the full committee memberships, they can be found in the October 1998 Gazette, or I will be glad to provide it. It was also announced that, in accordance with the wishes of the Delegate body, the June 1999 Delegates Meeting will be held in Raleigh!

I will be attending the December meeting and will let you know about the items on the agenda in our next newsletter. Until then, please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns that you may have.

Respectfully submitted,

Lisa Connelly

Dec. Obed.Trial Trophies

HELP!!! We are down to begging NOW!!!!!!!

Trophy donations are running far behind last year's obedience trial. There are several breeds that always have several entries in trials that as of now have no trophy. In the Sporting group - Golden retriever, and Cocker spaniel. In the Working group - Rottweiler and Doberman. In the Herding group - Australian Shepherd, Border Collie and Shetland Sheepdog. Bring us an item suitable for the breed you choose to honor. There are still several class placements available if you would prefer to make your donation in the form of a check. Last year all the exhibitors had glowing comments about our generous members and the wonderful trophies they had provided. Many of those trophies were won by our own DKC members. Thanks for your help, Cecillia Reeder and Margaret Fox

Included with this newsletter are the application forms for the awards available to DKC members. So gather up your doggie titles and apply for your DKC plaque, certificate or trophy! Last year over 80 awards were presented--can we break 100 this year?
