March 2010

The Iditarod is On, Mon! (by Tracy Sabo, cnn.com)

Anchorage, Alaska (March 6, 2010) -- It's the world's most famous sled dog race, a feat of endurance for mushers and dog teams who must travel across 1,049 miles through some of the most unforgiving and extreme terrain on the planet.

It is the Iditarod. Organizers call it the "Last Great Race on Earth," and only the toughest mushing teams and survivalists need apply.

First-time Iditarod musher Newton Marshall was seen this week taking care of 17 dogs in a hotel parking lot in Anchorage, Alaska. Each dog was chained to Marshall's borrowed kennel pickup, several of them barking to regain their leader's attention.

Marshall, 26, is among 22 rookies on the 2010 Iditarod starting roster of 71 teams, but that's not the reason he made history as the ceremonial start to the race got underway Saturday.

"Hey, mon! ... I'm from Jamaica. I'm running the Iditarod!" Marshall exclaimed while performing the not-so-glorious task of cleaning up after his dog team.

Wait, WHAT? Did he just say Jamaica?

"They look at me and think I'm crazy," Marshall said with a chuckle. "I'm not supposed to be up here."

He knows critics are probably mocking him thanks to the hapless Jamaican bobsled team that debuted at the 1988 Winter Olympics in Calgary, Canada, but Marshall balks at any comparison.

"Bobsledding is nothing, mon, and they didn't make the Olympics this year, so hopefully we can do something," he said.

Marshall may be a rookie at the Iditarod, but he has successfully completed other mushing competitions since his career began in 2005. His longest race thus far brought a 13th-place finish (in a field of 29 competitors) in last year's 1,000-mile Yukon Quest International Sled Dog Race between Fairbanks, Alaska, and Whitehorse in Canada's Yukon Territory.

Marshall comes with financial backing and material support, as well. The Jamaican dogsled team, made up of rescued

March Meeting

The next meeting of the DKC membership will take place on Monday, March 15, 2010. Do plan to attend and bring a dish for our potluck dinner.

Dinner will be served at 7:00 pm. Bring a friend at 7:00 and furry friends are welcome at 7:30 pm.

Program: We will be playing "AKC Group BINGO" as a fund raiser for Cyndi and Bill Swanson. Each person present may purchase BINGO! cards for a donation. There will be 7 blocks across and up and down - each column will be an AKC Group, then instead of numbers the blocks will contain members of that group. First person to get "BINGO" will win a huge basket of dog goodies.

The Iditarod (cont from p. 1)

strays and performing dry-land sled dog rides in Ocho Rios, is financially supported by Jimmy Buffett's Margaritaville cafes.

Marshall has been training for the nine- to 10-day event with three-time Iditarod winner and defending champion Lance Mackey. He's beginning to sound just like Mackey, too, always giving the credit first to his dog team.

"These dogs run 12, 15 hours straight, nonstop, so these are really tough athletes," Marshall said. "They're one of the toughest athletes in the world."

Newton's entire Iditarod dog team is on loan from Mackey's Comeback Kennel in Fox, Alaska.

Lead dog Larry is an Iditarod veteran, and Marshall's confidence in reaching the finish line depends heavily on the 9-year-old Alaskan husky.

"I have to take care of him for him to take care of me going to Nome," Marshall said. "He knows the trail."

So, how does a Jamaican explain leaving behind 80-degree temperatures for an Arctic winter in training?

"Obviously, I don't really like the cold, you know, but I like running dogs," he said. "As long as I'm warm, I'm happy with the dogs, and the dogs like to see when you're happy."

Marshall's competitive mantra is simple:

"Expect the unexpected. This is the big one, you know. The toughest race on Earth," he said.

He will not predict a winner.

"It's a surprise for everybody," he said.

- All equipment should be put away in its proper place unless arrangements have be made to leave the equipment up for the next users.

Rainbow Bridge

Nell "CH Wolfecreek's Rusty Nail" went to the rainbow bridge. She had a rough last week following the last form of chemo administered. Her kidneys shut down and she appeared to be in too much pain that could not be managed. So I said, "enough suffering." She has been a special ray of light in my life and has brought so much pleasure to me and others. She never met another dog or person she did not like. For two years she has been going to the NCSU Vet School. Angels Fund and the Vet school made the last two years of her life and quality of life possible. When I said my final goodbye, I was so touched the whole staff who grew to love her also came in to say goodbye. So many memories to treasure.

Awards Banquet

DKC held its annual Awards Banquet on Saturday, February 13, with 66 people in attendance.

We hope everyone who attended the banquet enjoyed the evening.

Dinner was catered by Rick's Diner, who did a wonderful job again this year.

Our own Patty Thomas made all of the wonderful desserts for the banquet. They were a special treat!

It is nice to see so many of our members working their dogs and being so successful! A complete list of the awards and winners is attached to this newsletter. Be sure to give congratulations to all who earned titles this past year and to those who won one of our perpetual trophies.

Awards Correction

The Awards Committee would like to extend a sincere apology for a mistake we made in the calculation of points on the Pitz Agility Trophy. The trophy should have been awarded to Tracy Fletcher and his Shetland Sheepdog, MACH4 Ryladd The Chips Are Flying XF UD. Tracy and "Chipper" earned 1292 MACH points and 21 QQs during the awards year.

In addition to apologizing to Tracy, we owe an apology to Mary Whorton. She and her Border Collie, OTCH MACH HC Lytnstryke All Wired UP UDX HXAs HXBs NF, had a great year, too, by earning 1272 MACH points and 12 QQs.

Both Tracy and Mary were very understanding of our mistake!

The Awards Committee would like to thank those of you who stayed after the banquet to help straighten and clean up. It was greatly appreciated.

For all of their efforts prior to awards night and the hours that go into the day of the event, please be sure to thank committee members Roger and Nancy Akers, Denise McDonald, Nancy Zawadowski, Diane Divine, and Carolyn Wolfe. A special thanks to Diane Divine for her editing skills and all her travels back and forth from the engraver. They are a great committee and make the banquet a success. I cannot thank them enough for serving with me.

Congratulations again to everyone for their accomplishments this past year, and we hope you have another successful year in 2010!

Kudos to Patty Thomas

The Awards Committee would like to give a huge thank you to Patty Thomas for making all of the desserts for the DKC banquet. In keeping with the banquet's Valentine theme, she made Peanut Butter Passion, Cupid's Red Velvet Cake, Wedding Bell White Cake and my personal favorite, Chocolate Raspberry Obsession. She and John set up a beautiful table of her desserts and kept it well-stocked throughout the banquet. They were as pretty as they were wonderful to eat! Thank you again Patty for such a wonderful treat!

Recipe Corner

Mexican Eggs (Paulette Hicks)

- 10 eggs
- ½ cup flour
- ¼ cup melted butter
- Dash of salt
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 pint cottage cheese
- 8 oz. diced green chili
- 1 pound Monterey Jack cheese

ENJOY!!

New "Members!"

Here's Pip ("Gala's Hip Pip Hooray"). She's the granddaughter of DKC member Sally Gleis' border collie, Zoe. I plan to do competitive obedience with her but would also like to enroll her in a puppy agility class at DKC. I'd also like to take her to some handling classes and puppy matches while she's a baby and have fun with that, too. She's a delightful little puppy and I think she's going to have a lot of fun with learning, training and showing. She's a fun little puppy!

Proposed New Officers

The Election Committee has proposed the slate of officers for the 2010 thru 2012 term.

Remember that the by-laws were changed such that the candidates serve a two-year term .

Each candidate is limited to serve no more than two consecutive terms in a given position with the exception of the AKC delegate.

At the April meeting, nominations will be accepted from the floor; the nominee must accept at the meeting or provide a letter accepting the nomination.

The remaining offices will be up for election in 2011.

Proposed Slate of Officers for 2010 - 2012

Office	Present	Proposed
Recording Secretary	Peggy Schmidt	Amanda Stipe
Corresponding Secretary	Ann Carter	Ann Carter
AKC Delegate	Linda Wozniak	Linda Wozniak
Board Member	Terri Toohil	Paulette Hicks
Board Member	Jan Gray	Maria Walker

Volunteer Opportunities!

The DKC will have a TD tracking test on March 21 at Quail Roost Farm. We need volunteers for tracklaying on Saturday and the test on Sunday, and help with the luncheon. If you have tracklaying experience and have not volunteered for an event, we can sure use your skills. Contact Jack Sappenfield at 919.598.5318 or by email (wymars@msn.com). Happy tracking!

Spring Show, Friday, March 26: Obedience and Rally Stewards Needed. I need experienced ring stewards and table stewards at the Fairgrounds inside the Jim Graham Building. If you don't have experience...don't worry, I'll pair you with a mentor and also send you instructions prior to the big day. Because Friday is a work day, it's harder to find helpers. So please volunteer!

MBF hasn't determined whether Obedience & Rally will have only one ring, with obedience first and rally to follow (or vice versa). Or, we may have two rings, depending on entry numbers. Those final determinations and exact times for each class will only be known when the judging schedule comes out.

Please call Obedience Chair, Lynn Reagan-Hull at 919.676.0983 or email lrhull@mindspring.com to volunteer for Obedience Stewarding. Contact Rally Chair, Ann Carter to volunteer for Rally Stewarding, summertimegsp@bellsouth.net.

Spring Show, Friday, March 26: Poop Patrol Volunteers Needed. All you dedicated Poop Patrollers... I need you again. Once again I'm coordinating poop patrol for the Tarheel Cluster, setting up/cleaning up the poop buckets, butt buckets, getting all the supplies, etc. Some of the clubs do a great job, but other clubs have few members and it falls on me and a few dedicated people to pick up the slack on those days to insure that the grounds stay clean. We want the grounds to be relatively free of poop and the poop buckets to be emptied regularly. DKC has ALWAYS come through on our day and done a fabulous job, so I'm counting on you again.

Never done poop patrol? It's easy. You wear a yellow vest, walk thru and around the show building and you can even stop to watch your favorite breeds. Check all the poop buckets and empty full ones, empty butt buckets and add more poop bags to the rings on the doors. Smile and hand a poop bag to anyone about to walk away and leave a huge pile! Easy. We do 2-3 hour shifts, but I can fit you in anytime. Please call Lynn Reagan-Hull 676-0983 or email me lrhull@mindspring.com to volunteer. Thanks.
