Awards Banquet

Each year the Durham Kennel Club holds an awards banquet to recognize its members' accomplishments from the previous year of showing. Plaques are given for titles earned and many perpetual or traveling trophies are awarded for outstanding achievements in conformation, obedience, rally, tracking, agility and versatility.

Our Awards Banquet date has been moved to Saturday, February 29, 2020, to accommodate the DKC Tracking Test scheduled on the weekend of February 22-23. (Several of our Awards Committee members also serve on our Tracking Test Committee!). We understand that the Awards Banquet conflicts with other events but it is difficult to find a weekend that is completely free for everyone.

Because of the date change, we find that our usual caterer, Northern High School, has a previous commitment on the 29th. We have checked with other caterers and find that most would charge us $30+ per person for a comparable meal.

As a Committee, we have decided for this year's Banquet to be a more casual affair — mid-day instead of evening — at our building. Lunch will be BBQ, chicken, side dishes and desserts. Cost this year will be $10.00 per person. Doors will open at noon. Lunch will be served at 12:30.

To apply for an award, you must be a regular, full member and have completed 2 services for the club in the last year.

Awards applications are available on the DKC website. Thank you, Cathy Wells, for all your hard work revising and uploading them to the website! Please note that due to the increased cost, we are NOT requiring an AKC Show Record for any of the applications. The Gray Versatility application is being simplified and revised to include Scent Work titles. If you plan to apply for this trophy, please give us a few days to get the new application on the website.

<http://www.durhamkennelclub.com/Awards/applications/awards-applications.php>

The dinner reservation is available online also.

All applications must be made on an application form. The deadline for applications is January 25, 2020, at 5:00 PM. If you are applying for something and have not received your certificate yet or AKC has not updated their website, please note that on your application. Please read all the requirements for trophies and follow the instructions on the application forms.

Mail completed applications to Lisa Roberts 120 Argonne Drive, Durham, NC 27704

If you have any questions please contact Lisa Roberts at wonderdogs@earthlink.net

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you at the banquet Saturday, February 29, 2020.

Lisa Roberts (Awards Chair), Nancy Akers, Florence Archer, Diane Divine, Cathy Wells, Donna Wesemann, Beth White and Nancy Zawadowski

Call for Volunteers

Spring Agility Trial Committee

I am in need of two volunteers to serve on the Spring Agility Trial Committee. One position is for Volunteer Coordinator and the other position would be as a floater/back-up to the other committee members. The spring agility trial will be held on April 17-19. It is an AKC requirement that committee members be present each day of the trial - all day. So please do not volunteer if you cannot make this time commitment. It would be best if the volunteer coordinator had experience with agility and the various jobs associated with running a trial (ring crew, gate steward, etc); the floater can be completely new to agility. The committee will meet one time prior to the trial for two hours to discuss roles and responsibilities and timelines for getting tasks done.

If you are willing to help us out, I would appreciate it!

AKC Government Relations 2019 Highlights

Currently, Congress, five states, and the District of Columbia are in legislative session. 17 States are accepting pre-filed bills for 2020. AKC Government Relations is currently tracking more than 2,350 bills on the federal, state, and local levels.

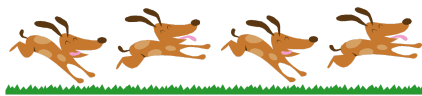

AKC GR has been active in all 50 states. AKC GR has issued 152 legislative alerts in 2019, and provided comments and/or oral and written testimony on more than 100 pieces of canine legislation. The addition of new field staff in the last two years has enabled AKC GR to significantly increase in the amount of in-person contact and in-person testimony we provide at the state and local levels. One-on-one engagement is resulting in significant new levels of influence, recognition, and successes in key policy areas such as protecting the rights of breeders and owners, preserving AKC events, and AKC representation on officially-recognized expert policy panels.

As is typical for this time of year, we are currently seeing more action at local ( county, city municipal) levels. A "hot issues" update of state and local issues is provided, and I would be happy to provide more updates.

Many bills fall into multiple categories, however the top issues we are seeing at the state and local level right now (in order) are:

- Cruelty
- Working Dogs
- Other (including breeder licensing)
- Veterinary
- Animal Control
- Retail Sales

AKC GR communicates to dog owners, club members, lawmakers and the public via geo-targeted legislative alerts, online alerts, facebook/twitter and other social media, The Taking

Command ( monthly advocacy) and In Session (policy) newsletters, blogs, newspaper Op Eds, as well as through direct one-on-one contact and outreach with club-based legislative liaisons.

AKC GT has also been having regular calls with our counterparts in Canada (CKC) who are dealing with similar and related legislative threats. In sharing information, we can each learn more about and be prepared to address animal rights politics as an international agenda.

Every member of the AKC GR team (11 total) participates in legislative analysis and comment. We are broken down geographically into 5 general regions, 4 of which have staff in the field (West Coast, New England, Southeast and “Mid-Atlantic Plus” regions) to work with dog owners and policymakers on issues that impact dog ownership and our sport. GR field staff, as well as NC staff are available to speak to clubs, provide testimony, advocacy training, assist with outreach, and help alert constituents and assist in taking action on issues of concern in those regions. GR regional team members are also registered as lobbyists in key states in their regions.

In 2019, AKC GR hired two new staff: Mikki McGinnis (Admin Assistant and Service Dog Project Manager) and Charles Hall (“Mid-Atlantic Plus” Legislative Analyst/Community Outreach Coordinator. Mr. Hall is scheduled to start at the beginning of Jan. 2020.)

Our federal lobbyist of more than 10 years (Mike Williams) is working on issues related to pet imports, Breeder Licensing, the Detection Dog Shortage, and other issues that impact us at the federal level. Federal issues are crucial because of their capacity to quickly impact the largest number of dog owners across the country.

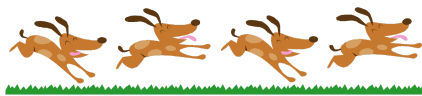

AKC GR has registered lobbyists (both staff and contract) in key states. The states where we register lobbyists varies from year to year depending on activity level, availability and specific issues. In 2019, we currently have lobbyists registered in AL, CA, CT, KY, MD, NJ, NC, NH, OH, PA, RI, VA.

Federal Issues: We are focusing on several key areas :

Imports of Unhealthy Dogs. More than 1 million dogs are being imported into the US on an annual basis. We believe the vast majority of these dogs are intended for transfer or resale in retail rescue or other retail markets. A large number of these dogs are entering with minimal health checks, and in many cases invalid health certificates. Combined with the “adopt don’t shop” mantra, many of these animals not only undermine demand for well-bred purebred dogs, they pose an imminent and significant health threat to humans, pets and livestock. AKC is working together with NAIA on federal legislation to require that dogs entering the US for transfer ( adoption, resale, etc.) have valid veterinary certificates from a competent veterinary authority that can be checked when they enter the US. Importers that attempt to import dogs that do not meet health standards would be required to return them to the country of origin! .

Federal Breeder Licensing Regulations and Legislation. HR 3164, the House-passed FY 2020 Agricultural Appropriations bill would require USDA APHIS to include personally identifiable information such as residential addresses and “animal inventories” in an online, publicly-searchable database of USDA licensed dog breeders. AKC agrees with USDA that adding personal information is not necessary for assuring animal welfare. Moreover, we believe that unnecessary publication of such information creates a virtual “shopping list” for animal rights activists and pet thieves who wish to target individual breeders. Such measures not only hurt responsible breeders but are likely to dampen efforts to improve licensing compliance and the welfare oversight of animals in licensed facilities.

Service Dogs. AKC GR is working with US Department of Transportation and providing comment on potential rules changes regarding the federal air carrier access act, and other federal laws impacting assistance animals.

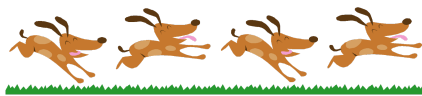

AKC GR is also working with colleagues at the American Service Dog Access Coalition, and industry colleagues including: airlines, the airline industry associations, service dog groups, and governments to continue to develop all aspects of a new authoritative, voluntary and verifiable credential to streamline access for service dog teams that meet specific behavioral, ask-based and health standards. AKC presented at the Association of Service Dog Providers for Military Veterans and obtained updated buy-in on the program from the association’s members, who will help beta test the new program. Expanded evaluator requirements have been developed, and database technology is in development.

Airlines issues. While cargo issues are not be strictly legislative or regulatory issues, AKC GR is working with airline industry leaders to address issues related to airline bans on dogs in cargo based on size and breed.

Detection Dog Task Force. In September, GR took on staff oversight and administration of this program. GR actively engages with government and law enforcement for updated information on detection dog requirements to assist with shortage issues. The Patriotic Puppy program, and contractor Scott Thomas works directly with breeders/owners and trainers to produce dogs that are suitable for purchase by law enforcement, military and private security. In December, the first participant from the AKC patriotic puppy program was acquired by law enforcement.

Anti-Breeder Harassment Task Force. At the April Board meeting, AKC GR proposed the establishment of an informal taskforce/resources working group on anti-breeder harassment or retaliation with input from multiple AKC Departments and outside experts. The purpose of the taskforce is to centralize reports of this nature to AKC so recommendations for available action can be reviewed, compiled and disseminated as a resource for responsible breeders and dog experts. Taskforce members include AKC staff; input may also be obtained where appropriate from animal control, law enforcement, and legal experts. The GR team is continuing the development of resources, operation, communications and database tools for the initiative.

Law School Outreach/Student Writing Contest. The third annual AKC Law School Companion Animal Writing Contest concluded in December. Students at ABA-accredited law schools are invited to submit articles on a choice of topics related to animal rights and other key issues impacting pet ownership. The contest is designed to raise awareness of non-animal-rights aspects of animal law, and to broaden conversation among future leaders in this area.

Canines at the Capitol Events: AKC GR staff conducted canines at the capitol events in Washington DC, California, Maryland, Maine and North Carolina. The popular events provide legislators and staff educational information about AKC, information on key legislative policy positions, and the opportunity to meet dogs from each of the seven groups. The events are covered by local media and create new goodwill at the capitol and state legislatures, as well as new opportunities to discuss canine legislation issues with lawmakers.

National and Regional Legislator Conferences: GR staff participated in and prepared policy exhibits for numerous professional conferences for legislators, including the National Conference of State Legislators (NCSL), American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC), and the National Association of Counties (NACo), The Congressional Sportsmens Caucus, The National Assembly of (state) Sportsmens Caucuses (NASC), The National League of Cities, and individual state associations of municipalities conferences . Extensive contacts with lawmakers and decisionmakers were made at these events. In a number of cases, invitations to advise legislators on future and existing legislation and positive changes to pending legislation were a direct result of outreach made at the conferences.

New Internal Legislative Tracking Database Development Completed: Development of a new internal legislative tracking and contact management database system (Fiscal Note) was completed and is currently being implemented, along with training for all staff. This program is designed to improve staff efficiency, effectiveness and measurable impacts. Full implementation and training are anticipated before the end of the year.

National Conference, mini conferences and seminars: A two-day national conference was held in Washington DC in conjunction with lobby-day events and a Capitol Hill reception and mini-meet the breeds in honor of purpose-bred dogs. Approximately 400 congressional staff and members attended the event. Multiple smaller conferences, events and live seminars were conducted in more than a dozen states.

AKC PAC Fundraiser

At the AKC National Championship in December, the American Kennel Club Political Action Committee (PAC) hosted its second annual caricature artist fundraiser. Donors to the AKC PAC who came by the AKC PAC booth on Friday, Saturday, or Sunday afternoon sat for a caricature of themselves and/or their dog by renowned caricature artist Rafael Diez.

In supporting the AKC PAC, participants are taking an active role in helping to protect their right to own, exhibit, and breed dogs and ensure that legislators understand that AKC dog club members will hold their legislators responsible for laws impacting dog ownership.

Purebred vs Mixed Breed

There has been a long standing argument amongst dog lovers and experts alike on the merits of a mixed-breed versus a purebred puppy. Some believe that there are many advantages to getting a mixed-breed for a pet, saying that a mixed-breed has a better disposition and can more easily adapt to its new home. And without a doubt, mixed-breeds are sold at lower prices compared to purebred dogs. Read the full article here

Top 10 Questions to Ask When Getting a Dog from a Shelter

Congratulations on making the decision to welcome a new furry friend into your home. Just as it's important to ask breeders questions about their practices before purchasing a puppy, it's equally important to do a little digging before rescuing a dog from a shelter. Here are some pre-adoption questions to ask to make sure the dog you select is the best fit for you and your family.

1. Why is this dog in a shelter? (a. owner surrender, b. stray, c. rescue)
  - a. Why did the owner surrender the dog?
  - b. Where was this stray dog found and in what condition?
  - c. Is this animal here as a result of an animal cruelty charge against its previous owner?
2. What was the condition of the dog when he was brought to the shelter?
3. Has this dog been adopted out before?
4. What veterinary care has the dog received since arriving at the shelter and can you provide copies of those veterinary records? Is this dog housebroken?

5. Does this dog get along well with children or other pets and how does he act around strangers?
  6. Does this dog have suitable good manners that I could take away his food bowl while eating or remove his toy while playing?
  7. Can this dog walk calmly on a leash in public or does he need further training?
  8. Does this dog require any special medical care, ongoing treatment or dietary restrictions?
  9. Will the shelter take this dog back if it doesn't work out with my family?
  10. Tip: Is your shelter dog a mixed-breed? Check out the AKC Canine Partners Program to learn about events and opportunities for mixed-breed dogs.
