“Building a Scent Work Source Monster”

February 4 and 5 2023

Durham Kennel Club, 7318 Guess Road, Hillsborough, NC

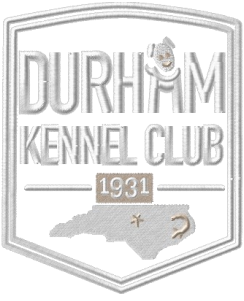

Tony Gravley is coming to North Carolina to present “Building a Source Monster.” Tony’s training plan is modified from his years of training detection dogs and teams. This workshop will not only tap into problem solving but give your dogs the tools to find solve problems and bring out motivation to get to source. DESIRE, DRIVE, AND COMMITMENT to get to source will be developed through exercises as well as understanding the HOWS and WHYS making you a better trainer.

Tony Gravley is the owner and founder of Next Generation K9, TWG Group LLC. He has over thirty years of experience as a trainer, instructor, manager, and handler of Police and Military Working dogs. Next Generation K9 hold multiple Government contracts such as Department of Defense, US Customs and Border Control, and local law enforcement agencies providing fully trained and green explosive detection and narcotics detection dogs.

Tony is an AKC Scent Work Expert Judge, NACSW Judge, Master Trainer for the United Police Work Dog Association, US Marine Corps Police K9 Handler, Graduate of Military Working Dog Patrol Dog Course, Graduate of Military Working Dog Explosive Detection Dog Course, Graduate of Military Working Dog Supervisor Course, Graduate of Air Education and Training Instructor Course.

TWELVE WORKING SPOTS for handlers and their dogs (with minimum of Novice Level Titles, please) TWENTY-FIVE AUDIT SPOTS for individuals without dogs (any level).

You may video-record your own dog’s performance, however, the seminar may not be recorded in whole or in part.
