

MEAGAN SKELTON AGILITY SEMINARS

DATE: October 14, 2023

Durham Kennel Club Agility Field

(Rain Date: October 15, 2023)

The Agility Committee of the Durham Kennel Club is pleased to announce that Meagan Skelton will be teaching two half day agility seminars at Stella's Field at the Durham Kennel Club.

9:30 am - 12:30 pm ADVANCED Seminar: "Which Cross Where?" For dogs competing at the Excellent Level or above.

1:30 pm – 5:00 pm NOVICE/OPEN Seminar: "Finding the Dog's Line" For dogs competing at the Novice or Open Level. Dogs must be proficient on all obstacles.

Working Spots cost per half-day session: $120 non-members. $100 DKC members in good standing. Limited to 8 dog and handler teams each seminar.

Audit Cost per half-day session: $40 for non-members. $30 for DKC members in good standing.

Meagan Skelton is a second-generation dog trainer who has competed in agility for more than 20 years. Including competing in the top levels across multiple venues. Meagan is a popular agility judge for all levels of UKI and USDAA. She is an accomplished trainer and instructor and a Controlled Unleashed certified instructor. Meagan has also spent the last ten years working with reactive dogs in a variety of settings.

Meagan's goal is to challenge teams while also building confidence. Her approach to dog training is based on positivity, motivation, and common sense. Meagan's goal is to meet students and dogs exactly where they are and offer highly tailored coaching that will make the team better. Meagan is a popular and well-respected instructor in the NC area. She also judges and teaches seminars throughout the United States.

Her students appreciate her positive and practical approach. Meagan brings a wealth of dog training knowledge and experience. However, she believes that the bond between handler and dog always comes first as it is the foundation for success across disciplines and venues.

Meagan is currently competing in agility with Wookie, a four-year-old Border Collie and doing foundation training with her young Border Collie, Vesimer.

ENTRY FORM FOR THE MEAGAN SKELTON SEMINARS

Please fill out a separate form for each dog entered.

Advanced Seminar Working: _____ Novice/Open Seminar Working: _____

Auditing: AM _____ PM _____

Handler Information:

Name: _____

Email: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Emergency Contact: Name: _____ Phone: _____

Dog's Call Name: _____ Age: _____ Breed: _____

Training and competition experience:

Has this dog ever shown any aggression towards dogs or humans:

No: ___ Yes: ___ (please explain) _____

(DKC and Meagan Skelton reserve the right to refuse entry or excuse from the seminar any dog that has a history of aggression or demonstrates aggression during the seminar.)

Bring a chair, water, training treats and toys, and a crate for your dog. There is limited shade at the agility field, Tents will be set up. Restrooms are in the club building. Lunch is not provided.

Fees enclosed:

Advanced Seminar Working Spot: $100 (DKC member) _____ or $120 _____

Novice/Open Seminar Working Spot: $100 (DKC member) _____ or $120 _____

Auditor: AM $30 (DKC member) _____ or $40 _____ PM $30 (DKC member) _____ or $40 _____

Please mail the entry form and a check payable to the Durham Kennel Club (or DKC) to:
Pam Robbins, 1707 Friendship Lane, Hillsborough, NC 27278 Email contact: tscordas@aol.com